

William S. Cizmadia

“Divorce is inherently contentious and emotionally draining. I take pride in providing determined and compassionate representation for all of my clients both inside and outside of court.”

Bill Cizmadia is a trial lawyer whose practice focuses exclusively on family law. Bill received his J.D. from Whittier Law School in 2011 where he was a member of the Moot Court Honors Board, and graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University in 2005 with a B.A. in Politics & Government.

Prior to joining PWGGC as an associate, Bill practiced family law in Los Angeles where he represented clients across the full spectrum of family law, including dissolution, child custody, support, property division, domestic violence, and as lead counsel in a Second Appellate District case challenging a foreign judgment.

Bill was raised in Cleveland Heights and was enticed to move to Southern California after spending numerous summers with family in Laguna Beach. Prior to entering law school, Bill worked in the political realm and was involved in numerous campaigns at the state and federal levels.

Bill is admitted to the California Bar and the United States District Court for the Central, Southern, and Eastern Districts of California.

William S. Cizmadia
Associate